LIVE AT FIVE

Live at Five is a popular, family-friendly, outdoor concert series in downtown Fairhope, Alabama. Concerts are held in the beautiful Halstead Amphitheatre located on the campus of Coastal Alabama Community College.

Each Fall and Spring, Live at Five hosts national and local bands and singers/songwriters, spanning a wide range of musical genres: rock, country, Americana, alternative, jazz, soul, funk, and more. Past performers include the Red Clay Strays, the Marshall Tucker Band, Blues Traveler, Spin Doctors, Drivin N Cryin, Dirty Dozen Brass Band, North Mississippi All-Stars, and many local artists.

At Live at Five, our aim is simple: attract sought-after musicians to our town and provide our concert goers with the highest quality live music experience.

Live at Five attracts a diverse audience, but the common denominator is a love of live music and an appreciation of outdoor, festival gatherings.

OUR AUDIENCE

Over six years ago, Live at Five set out to fill the void in our community for live music in a laid back and casual environment.

Live at Five's tremendous success over the past seven years has increased audience attendance to over 2000 for many of our national artists, and the popularity of this laid-back, festival atmosphere gets bigger each season.
